CREW PROFILE

SPICE OF LIFE II PRINCESS V65

Captain JERKO MATULIC

Nationality Croatian

Jerko is a former professional athlete (handball player). He played in France for 4 years, 2 years in Poland and a total of 10 years in the Croatian national handball team. He is a very communicative person, fun and responsible, as sports taught him. It's the sea has always been his greatest love and he devoted himself to skipper's career after his sports career. Growing up on the island, the sea was and still is his daily life, his passion call. Being at the sea, living with the sea and meeting new people from all over the world, to make their vacation better than ever is the realization of his childhood dream. He speaks several languages, Croatian as his mother tongue, English and French as well as is active, and Polish and Spanish at a conversational level.

Hostess LUNA PERGAR

Nationality Croatian

With her experience in the hotel industry and charter cruising holidays, with a deep passion for providing exceptional customer service, Luna is a valuable addition to the M/Y SPICE OF LIFE II crew as a Hostess. She has developed a comprehensive skillset specifically tailored to the unique needs of luxury clientele. Luna consistently works well with both the guests and Captain to ensure that everyone feels welcome and catered, without losing any of her charm and warmth. As a highly motivated individual who thrives in fast-paced environments and is eager to face new challenges, we believe that clients will remember Luna as a key person in making their holiday memorable. She speaks excellent English, fluently Spanish.
